THE CYBER FIT PYRAMID AT WORK

Step Up Your Security Awareness

| Policy	People	Technology
Participate in DOE's mandatory annual information security training.	Passwords are not secrets you share.	CTRL-ALT-DELETE when you leave your seat!
Read before you click: Review website privacy policies.	Think before you Click! Don't get phished.	Encrypt files, hard drives and media containing sensitive information.
Follow DOE policies for handling and storing work-related information.	Report security incidents immediately according to your organization's policy.	Password protect your Blackberry.
Understand DOE directives about official and personal use of government computer resources.	Use electronic media from reliable sources only.	Never send sensitive information in an unencrypted email.
Contact your help desk for your organization's remote access security policies.	When it doubt, don't share it out: protect your information!	Learn about DOECOE's desktop security features and services.

Policy   People   Technology

You are critical to protecting DOE data and information systems. Stay Cyber Fit at work by following these best cyber security practices.

U.S. DEPARTMENT OF ENERGY